Company: AC Media & Marketing

Role: Sales Growth Lead

Dear Alyce,

As an independent lead generation specialist with hands-on experience building B2B pipelines and presenting professional service solutions, I was drawn to the Sales Growth Lead position at AC Media & Marketing. The opportunity to work in a remote, self-directed capacity while focusing on consultative selling and strategic pipeline management aligns perfectly with how I successfully run my current outbound operations.

Through my independent practice, CLG Project, I have managed the full sales cycle from prospecting to client discovery. By developing targeted outreach campaigns and utilizing CRM tools like HubSpot, I have sourced and qualified over 500 B2B prospects and generated a consistent 5–10 qualified leads per week. While my direct consulting experience has been centered on the e-commerce space, I have built a strong foundation in relationship-building, data-driven outreach, and pipeline tracking—and I am eager to bring that discipline to your boutique marketing firm.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my proactive approach to lead generation and client discovery can help expand AC Media & Marketing's client accounts.

Sincerely,

Daniil Kotelevets
