Professional Summary

Results-driven Business Development Representative with hands-on experience building predictable outbound pipelines for B2B tech and corporate service companies. Operating as an independent B2B lead generation specialist (CLG Project), I deeply understand the complexities of global hiring and international business expansion. I utilize advanced tech stacks (Apollo, Instantly, Make.com) and AI models (Claude, Python) to thoroughly research target accounts and execute hyper-personalized outreach. Fully self-motivated and remote-ready, I am eager to bring my consultative approach to Bradford Jacobs to generate qualified meetings and fast-track into a Senior Business Manager role.

Experience

Founder & B2B Lead Generation Specialist — CLG Project
