Professional Summary

Driven B2B Sales Professional and independent contractor with full-cycle sales experience. Founder of a B2B lead generation agency (CLG Project) where I manage the entire sales cycle—from targeted outbound prospecting to conducting discovery calls, negotiating, and closing deals. Fluent in English and Spanish, highly proficient in HubSpot, and uniquely positioned as an active university student to deeply understand the higher education and student employability landscape from the inside out.

Experience

Founder & B2B Sales Executive — CLG Project

Jul 2025 – Present | Independent contractor, remote.

- Managed the full B2B sales cycle for my own lead generation agency, carrying out business development through Email and LinkedIn to secure and close new client accounts.
 - Conducted online sales conversations, product demonstrations, and discovery calls directly with C-level executives and business owners.
 - Led contract negotiations, managed client onboarding, and handled all B2B closing processes independently.
 - Maintained rigorous sales activity, account plans, and pipeline hygiene operating natively in HubSpot and Salesforce.
 - Built and executed highly targeted outbound sequences to maintain a consistent influx of 5-10 qualified sales opportunities per week.
 - Managed ongoing relationships with active customers, ensuring continuous service delivery and high retention rates.
 - Operated as a fully remote independent contractor, managing my own schedule and invoicing processes with international B2B clients.
