Professional Summary

Driven and tech-savvy Sales Development professional with an enterprising personality and a deep passion for B2B lead generation. Currently running an independent outbound practice (CLG Project), utilizing modern tech stacks and CRM tools to consistently book sales-qualified meetings. Highly resourceful self-starter eager to bring my grit and outbound expertise to LeadRush Labs as an independent contractor, while continuing to learn and elevate my skills within a top-tier growth marketing environment.

Experience

Founder & Lead Generation Specialist — CLG Project

Jul 2025 – Present | Independent contractor, remote.

- Managed end-to-end B2B outbound services, successfully sourcing, engaging, and booking 5 to 10 highly qualified sales meetings per week.
 - Leveraged advanced technology tools and software (Python, Make.com, Claude, Apollo.io) to automate lead generation workflows and personalize outreach at scale.
 - Demonstrated extreme grit and perseverance in navigating the sales cycle, persisting through challenges and rejections to consistently hit high conversion metrics.
 - Maintained excellent written and verbal communication across multi-channel campaigns (Email, LinkedIn Sales Navigator), ensuring professional and persuasive client relations.
 - Operated entirely as a resourceful, self-starting independent contractor, managing my own schedule and constantly iterating on growth marketing strategies to maximize ROI.
 - Maintained meticulous CRM hygiene (Salesforce, HubSpot) to track follow-up progress and pipeline health.
