To: Hiring Team

Company: Locate Georgia (LTD Viaggio Travel Group)

Role: Sales Agent

Dear Hiring Team,

Per your application instructions, here is a short introduction about who I am and why this role interests me.

Who I am: I am an independent B2B lead generation specialist based in Spain. Over the past year, I built and operated my own outbound sales practice from scratch. Working with high autonomy and on a performance basis, I successfully researched and built targeted lists of over 500 B2B prospects. By initiating professional cold outreach via email and LinkedIn, I consistently generated 5–10 qualified leads per week. I am highly disciplined in tracking lead statuses using CRMs like Salesforce and HubSpot, and I am completely comfortable operating in an independent, commission-only environment.

Why this role interests me: I am deeply interested in this role because I excel at the exact core duty you require: researching target markets, building prospect lists from scratch, and executing persistent follow-up. While my academic background is in engineering rather than hospitality, my structured approach to B2B prospecting and fluent command of English, Spanish, and Russian make me perfectly equipped to introduce your group tour offerings to a wide array of European travel agencies. I am eager to leverage your sales toolkit and direct mentorship to generate high-value group bookings for Locate Georgia.

I would welcome the opportunity for a brief call to discuss how my persistent outreach approach can help you connect with top outbound travel agencies across Europe.

Sincerely,

Daniil Kotelevets
