Professional Summary

Results-driven B2B Sales Development Representative with a deep operational understanding of multi-channel outbound engines. As the founder of an independent lead generation practice (CLG Project), I run the exact playbook NextGen operates: targeting B2B SaaS and Tech companies using data-driven signals, personalizing outreach at scale with AI (Claude, Python, Make.com), and booking highly qualified meetings. Highly proficient in Apollo, Instantly, and HubSpot. Fully self-managing and ready to bring an entrepreneurial, high-performance mindset to NextGen's remote SDR team.

Experience

Founder & B2B Lead Generation Specialist — CLG Project

Jul 2025 – Present | Independent Practice, Remote (Spain)

- Ran full-cycle outbound campaigns for B2B SaaS and technology clients across European and UK markets, utilizing Email, LinkedIn, and targeted Discovery Calls.
- Researched accounts and built highly segmented target lists in Apollo.io, triggering outreach based on real buying signals (funding rounds, hiring trends, tech stack changes).
- Personalized outbound messaging at scale using advanced workflow automation (Make.com, Python) and LLMs (Claude), generating a consistent 5-10 qualified meetings per week.
- Booked qualified meetings and ensured clean, comprehensive handovers to client-side AEs and founders, collaborating closely on ICP refinement and messaging.
- Managed high-volume outbound campaigns via Instantly while maintaining strict CRM hygiene and reporting standards in HubSpot and Salesforce.
- Operated as a fully remote, self-managing contractor, taking direct ownership of pipeline metrics and client satisfaction without requiring micromanagement.
