Professional Summary

Results-oriented B2B Customer Acquisition Specialist focused on engineering highly personalized cold outreach sequences via Email and LinkedIn. Deeply experienced in using Apollo.io, Instantly.ai, and Make.com to build targeted lists of SME decision-makers and secure qualified discovery calls. Strong understanding of the AI, tech, and SaaS sectors, with a proven ability to consistently generate 5–10 highly qualified leads per week. Eager to take ownership of Scalancy.com's outbound engine on a remote, part-time basis.

Experience

Founder & Lead Generation Specialist — CLG Project

Jul 2025 – Present | Independent practice, remote

- Engineered an end-to-end B2B outbound lead generation system targeting SME leaders, operating entirely independently to source, qualify, and book discovery calls.
 - Built highly targeted lists of 500+ verified prospects using Apollo.io and LinkedIn Sales Navigator, meticulously filtering for strict ICP parameters.
 - Designed and launched personalized cold email and LinkedIn sequences via Instantly.ai, achieving high deliverability and securing a consistent 5–10 qualified leads per week.
 - Leveraged AI automation (Make.com, Claude, ChatGPT) to scrape prospect data, enrich CRM records, and generate hyper-personalized outreach at scale, deeply connecting with business owners' operational friction points.
 - Tracked all campaign performance, A/B testing subject lines and messaging angles to optimize response rates and deliver comprehensive weekly performance reports.
 - Actively managed initial communications and successfully booked qualified discovery calls directly onto founders' and decision-makers' calendars.
