Professional Summary

Data-driven Business Development Representative specializing in top-of-funnel outbound strategy via Email and LinkedIn. Fluent in English, Spanish, and Russian. Proven ability to research complex market segments—such as retail chains, venue operators, and corporate decision-makers—and qualify sales opportunities before handing them over to closing teams. Expert in CRM management (HubSpot, Salesforce) and outbound automation infrastructure (Instantly.ai), ensuring consistent lead flow and accurate activity tracking. Highly adaptable, self-motivated, and fully equipped to operate independently during EST business hours to generate qualified appointments for Sweet Robo's innovative product lines.

Experience

Founder & Lead Generation Specialist — CLG Project

Jul 2025 – Present | Independent practice, remote (Supporting EST/EMEA)

- Built and managed a high-volume B2B outbound engine, taking full ownership of targeted research and outreach sequences via Email and LinkedIn.
 - Leveraged Apollo.io and LinkedIn Sales Navigator to research and qualify over 500+ prospective accounts, accurately identifying and targeting key corporate decision-makers and business owners.
 - Iteratively tested messaging and copy to effectively introduce complex/innovative services clearly and professionally, tracking all responses and pipeline metrics in HubSpot and Salesforce.
 - Generated 5–10 highly qualified leads per week, successfully breaking through to decision-makers in targeted market segments.
 - Continuously secured 3 high-value discovery appointments weekly, seamlessly handing off qualified opportunities to sales executives.
 - Set up and managed technical email infrastructure (Instantly.ai), optimizing SPF, DKIM, and DMARC settings to guarantee superior deliverability and consistent, professional follow-up.
