Role: New Business & Seller Growth Executive - TikTok Shop - Spain

Dear Hiring Team,

As a highly driven B2B Sales Development professional based in Spain, I am incredibly excited to apply for the New Business & Seller Growth Executive role for TikTok Shop. I have exceptional command of both English and Spanish, and I am fully available to commit to the 6-12 month fixed-term contract.

Over the past year, I have operated autonomously in a remote-first setting, building an end-to-end outbound prospecting system from scratch. I successfully conducted multi-channel outbound campaigns (via email and LinkedIn) to source and qualify over 500 B2B prospects. By leading initial pitches and tailoring my messaging to address unique business needs, I consistently generated 5–10 qualified leads per week and secured discovery meetings with senior decision-makers. My strong organizational skills and proactive "hunter" mindset align perfectly with the fast-paced, high-velocity environment required to onboard the next wave of high-potential sellers onto TikTok Shop.

While my background has been focused on consultative B2B lead generation rather than direct eCommerce account activation, I possess the resilience, adaptability, and sales acumen required to quickly master GMV growth strategies and support end-to-end seller onboarding. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how I can act as a critical engine for your expansion in Spain.

Sincerely,

Daniil Kotelevets
