Professional Summary

Highly motivated, independent Business Development Representative with a strong track record of building prospect databases from scratch and initiating professional outreach with business owners and executives. Experienced in managing end-to-end CRM workflows, qualifying B2B opportunities, and coordinating discovery meetings without high-pressure sales tactics. Eager to act as Titanium Industrial Consultants' first commercial representative, bringing a structured, results-driven outbound approach in a flexible contractor capacity.

Experience

Founder & Lead Generation Specialist — CLG Project

Jul 2025 – Present | Independent practice, remote

- Acted as the sole commercial representative for an independent lead generation project, operating completely self-directed to build pipeline and drive B2B opportunities.
 - Researched target markets and built extensive prospect databases, sourcing and qualifying 500+ business owners using strict ICP criteria and data scraping tools.
 - Initiated professional outreach primarily through Email campaigns and LinkedIn networking, generating a consistent 5–10 highly qualified leads per week.
 - Conducted high-level discovery conversations to understand operational challenges, successfully coordinating and scheduling 3 discovery meetings with US decision-makers.
 - Maintained strict CRM hygiene, recording all emails, LinkedIn conversations, pipeline progression, and follow-up activities to ensure accurate performance metrics.
 - Set up robust communication infrastructure (sender domains, SPF, DKIM, DMARC) to represent the brand professionally and ensure maximum deliverability.
 - Originally targeted US-based Home Services organizations before pivoting to the e-commerce space to identify operational friction and align clients with strategic partners.
