Professional Summary

Tech-savvy, AI-native B2B Sales Development Representative fluent in English, Spanish, and Russian. Highly experienced in building automated tooling, prompts, and workflows to remove repetitive prospecting tasks and focus entirely on generating qualified pipeline. Leveraging a strong technical background in Multimedia Engineering to deeply understand AI, payments, and data infrastructure. Proven track record of independently building outbound engines that consistently deliver high-value discovery meetings with senior decision-makers. Eager to bring my automated outbound execution to Triple to shape the future of banking operations.

Experience

Founder & Lead Generation Specialist — CLG Project

Jul 2025 – Present | Independent practice, remote (Spain)

- Built and managed an end-to-end B2B outbound engine from scratch, utilizing AI tooling and process automation to generate qualified pipeline in international markets.
 - Designed custom prospecting workflows using Make.com and Python, automating the research and enrichment of 500+ target accounts to ensure lists were never stale.
 - Leveraged generative AI (ChatGPT/Claude) to craft highly personalized, short, and sharp outbound messages across Email and LinkedIn, rigorously A/B testing prompts to maximize reply rates.
 - Consistently generated 5–10 highly qualified leads per week and successfully converted automated digital outreach into 3 initial discovery meetings per week.
 - Kept CRM records (HubSpot, Salesforce) pristine, ensuring a sharp handover of qualified opportunities to technical agency partners with zero data loss.
 - Configured and maintained sender domain health (SPF, DKIM, DMARC) via Instantly.ai, guaranteeing scalable and reliable delivery for all automated outreach.
 - Actively monitored pipeline data and campaign metrics to quickly identify what wasn't working and continuously iterate on acquisition channels.
