Professional Summary

Early-career B2B Sales & Lead Generation professional with a proven track record of independently developing international customer pipelines. Expert in building data-scraping workflows and running highly structured digital outreach (Email & LinkedIn) to source and qualify prospects. Multilingual (English/Spanish/Russian), detail-oriented, and highly motivated to apply technical prospecting skills to drive growth in the global electronic components supply chain.

Experience

Founder & Lead Generation Specialist — CLG Project

Jul 2025 – Present | Independent practice, remote.

- Searched for and organized 500+ potential customer leads using custom data-scraping workflows (Python), LinkedIn Sales Navigator, and industry search tools.
 - Built initial contact with B2B prospects through highly targeted email and LinkedIn sequences, utilizing AI copywriting tools to improve response rates.
 - Maintained meticulous customer information, follow-up records, and sales data in CRM platforms (Salesforce, Apollo.io) to ensure no lead was dropped.
 - Continued following up with inactive prospects and existing leads to move conversations forward, generating a consistent 5–10 qualified leads per week.
 - Operated independently to support the full top-of-funnel pipeline, successfully converting initial outreach into 3 booked discovery meetings with US executives.
 - Set up and maintained underlying technical infrastructure (SPF, DKIM, DMARC) to protect deliverability and scale campaign volume.
